Gargoyle contents

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN LAW SCHOOL
Volume 28 Number 2 Spring/Summer 2002

About the Gargoyle ...

In 1962, when the existing Law School was demolished to make way for a new building, Dean of the Law School George Young found and rescued a sandstone gargoyle from the rubble.

This figure and its departed twin had sat on the roof of the 1893 building for almost 70 years. While one of the pair had perished in its fall, the second one had landed unscathed.

The rescued gargoyle, now permanently installed in the Law School's Atrium, gives its name to this magazine, representing the indomitable strength and spirit of our University of Wisconsin Law School and its many graduates.

For an illustrated history of the Law School's gargoyle, see <http://www.law.wisc.edu/lore/gargoyle.htm>.

Correction ...

The last issue of Gargoyle, Fall/Winter 2001-02, was incorrectly labeled Volume 28, No. 2; it was Volume 28, No. 1. The current issue is correctly labeled Volume 28, No. 2.
