

S. Bryan Kleinmaier

Keith James

Richard Heinemann

Chris Pahl

Nancy L. Shue

Barbara K. Polich

Joel Hirschhorn

Rachel Schneider

1960's

Daniel W. Hildebrand '64, an attorney at DeWitt Ross & Stevens in Madison, has been named a 2004 Leader in the Law by the Wisconsin State Journal. The award recognizes lawyers for their contributions in various fields of law. Hildebrand was cited for this appellate work and for his pro bono work in professional associations.

Richard Baumann '64, a partner at Sulmeyer Kupetz in Los Angeles, has been named one of Southern California's "Super Lawyers" for 2004. The award, from the Los Angeles Magazine, recognizes the top 5 percent of practicing lawyers.

Joel Hirschhorn '67, of Hirschhorn & Bieber in Coral Gables, Florida, has been elected President-elect of the Non-resident Lawyer Division of the State Bar of Wisconsin. Hirschhorn is also a continuing member of the Law School's board of visitors.

Terry W. Rose '67, an attorney with Rose & Rose in Kenosha, Wisconsin, has been re-elected to the Kenosha County board of supervisors and continues to serve as vice chair of the board.

Joel Lipman '68, Professor of Art & English at the University of Toledo, has been appointed director of the school's Arboretum.

Ellen M. Kozak '69 has published the third edition of her book, Every Writer's Guide to Copyright and Publishing Law. Kozak practices copyright, entertainment, and media law in Milwaukee.

1970's

Bruce Lehman '70 has joined the Washington, DC, firm of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld as senior counsel. Lehman continues as chair of the International Intellectual Property Institute.

Ann Taylor Wadsack '71, an attorney at DeWitt Ross & Stevens in Madison, has been elected to the board of directors of the Wisconsin Child Care Improvement Project, a consortium of child care organizations statewide that promotes quality and performance in the child care industry.

Frederick R. Hardt '72 has been appointed Circuit Judge in Naples, Florida. Hardt had been a partner at Roetzel & Andress in Naples before becoming a judge.

Bruce D. Loring '73 has joined the Real Estate practice group at Holland & Knight in their Chicago office. Loring is also a member of the Law School's board of visitors.

Michael J.T. McMillen '76, a partner of King & Spalding in their New York and London offices, has been named "Best Legal Advisor in Islamic Finance" by Euromoney Magazine. McMillen also serves as Reporter for the Islamic Financial Standards Board.

Barbara K. Polich '76, a shareholder at Parsons Behle & Latimer in Salt Lake City, Utah, has been honored for her service and contributions to technology in Utah's courts during nine years of service on the court's Standing Committee on Technology.

Kathleen Lhost '77 has been selected as director of the Sexual Assault Crisis Center of the Fox Cities. The center serves victims in Outagamie and Calumet counties.

Richard G. Roberts '77 has been elected vice chair of the board of directors of Physicians Insurance Company of Wisconsin. Roberts, who also has a medical degree, has served on the board since 1993 and is a past president of the Wisconsin Medical Society.

James J. Hoecker '78 has joined the Washington office of Vinson & Elkins in the firm's energy regulatory practice. Hoecker served as a commissioner of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission from 1993 to 2001 and chaired the Commission from 1997 to 2001.

Thomas A. Bowen '79 has joined Stevens & Lee in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where he will direct its newly formed state and local tax group. Bowen has spent the last seven years with Ernst & Young.

Michael David Fox '79 has received his Ph.D. in Drama and Theatre from the University of California-Irvine. He is teaching acting and dramatic literature, writing, directing, and acting in Los Angeles.

Kathleen E. Grant '79 has joined the Wausau firm of Davczyk & Varline, where she will focus on worker's compensation and insurance defense.

Bruce Huibregtse '79 has been named managing partner at Stafford Rosenbaum in Madison.

Michael P. May '79, formerly a partner at the Boardman Law Firm in Madison, has been appointed Madison City Attorney. He heads a staff of fifteen lawyers who represent the mayor, Common Council, and city departments.

Joseph M. Rivas '79, of Hochstatter, McCarthy & Rivas in Milwaukee, has been elected to the board of the Wisconsin Hispanic Lawyers Association.

1980's

Suzanne K. Schalg '81 has joined the Brookfield, Wisconsin, firm of Schmidt, Rupke, Tess-Mattner and Fox, where she will concentrate her practice in land use law.

Terry Renee Kraucunas '82 is an author who writes under the name Terri Kay. She recently was chosen as the featured author for Milwaukee's Black Festival of Books. Kay writes murder mysteries drawing on her health law experience.

Michael L. Silhol '85 has joined Radiologix in Dallas as senior vice president, general counsel and secretary. He brings extensive experience in health care law and corporate law.

Sean Duffey '86 recently earned the rank of firefighter/paramedic in the Milwaukee Fire Department. He also serves on the executive board of Milwaukee Professional Firefighters Association Local 215.

Samuel Brkich '87 has been appointed vice president and chief counsel for The Newport Group, a national provider of retirement services and asset management.

Bryan Adel '88 has been promoted to senior vice president at Rewards Network Inc., a leading provider of credit card-based loyalty and rewards programs. He will continue to serve as general counsel for the firm and will be based in the Chicago office.

Elizabeth Bruch '89 has joined the faculty at Valparaiso University School of Law. Bruch had previously served as practitioner-in-residence at the Human Rights Clinic of American University School of Law. She will teach torts, immigration, and international law.

Keith James '89, a shareholder in the Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, firm of Butzel Long, has received an award for commitment and dedication from HAVEN, an organization dedicated to preventing domestic violence, sexual assault, and child abuse in Oakland County. James has provided legal services to the organization and served on its board of directors and personnel committee.

Greg Lemmer '89 has joined the Palo Alto office of Pillsbury Winthrop, where he will continue to practice employment law.

S. Patrick McKey '89 has joined the litigation department of Bell, Boyd & Lloyd in Chicago. He will concentrate in complex commercial litigation involving product liability, intellectual property, and government enforcement.

Jennifer A. Ortiz '89, an attorney with the Legal Aid Society of Milwaukee, has been elected to corporate secretary of the Wisconsin Hispanic Lawyers Association.

1990's

Elyse Stackhouse '90, a staff attorney at the Wisconsin Public Service Corporation, has received the Nancy A. Felhofer Professional Achievement Award from Management Women, Inc.

Alexandra B. Klass '92 has joined the faculty of William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota. Klass formerly practiced environmental law and land use litigation at Dorsey & Whitney in Minneapolis.

Robert A. Kukuljan '92 has joined the business group of Hallelund Lewis Nilan in Minneapolis, where he will focus on venture capital and corporate finance matters.

James Loebel '92 has joined the faculty of Valparaiso University School of Law, where he will teach trusts and estates, taxation, and commercial law. Loebel comes from a visiting position at the University of Florida College of Law.

Ian Polumbaum '93 has joined the Senior Trial Unit of the Suffolk District Attorney's Office in Boston, where he will prosecute a variety of serious felony cases. Polumbaum has been an assistant District Attorney for nine years, six handling domestic violence felony cases.

Nancy L. Shue '93, an attorney at DeWitt Ross & Stevens in Madison, has been appointed to the staff-client education committee of the State Bar of Wisconsin.

Andrew J. Cheverz '94 has been elected to the board of the Wisconsin Hispanic Lawyers Association. Cheverz practices in West Allis, Wisconsin.

John Manthei '94 has been elected to partnership at Latham & Watkins. Manthei practices food and drug regulatory law.

Ana M. Berrios '95, family court commissioner in Milwaukee, is the immediate past president of the Wisconsin Hispanic Lawyers Association.

Rachel Schneider '95, a partner at Quarles & Brady in Milwaukee, has received the 2004 Milwaukee Bar Association Distinguished Service Award. She was recognized for her efforts to assist indigent access to legal services.

Lee J. Eulgen '97 has been elected to partnership at Neal, Gerber & Eisenberg in Chicago. Eulgen practices intellectual property law.

Rahul Kapoor '97 has joined the Palo Alto office of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius. He specializes in strategic alliances, joint ventures, corporate partnering, and intellectual property strategic counseling.

Michael Martinez '97 has been voted a partner at Bell Boyd & Lloyd in Chicago. Martinez is also a member of the steering committee of Friends of LEO at the Law School.

Richard Heinemann '98 has been named a partner at the Boardman Law Firm in Madison. Heinemann practices energy and telecommunications law, environmental law, litigation, and municipal law.

Wendy D. Calvert '99 has joined the law offices of Stephen J. Haszto in Chicago, where she will do insurance defense litigation.

Donald Laverdure '99, a professor at Michigan State University College of Law, is the director of its newly organized American Indian law program.

2000's

S. Bryan Kleinmaier '00 has joined the Madison office of Stafford Rosenbaum. He will focus on municipal, employment, and labor law.

Chris A. Jenny '01, an attorney with the Madison firm Lathrop & Clark, has been awarded the Small Business Administration's 2004 Small Business Legal Services Award for the State of Wisconsin.

David C. Morzenti '01 reports that he is a captain in the U.S. Marine Corps and is working in the SJA's Office for Marine Corps Bases Japan. He works on host nation issues and foreign criminal jurisdiction cases, as well as all normal criminal and administrative law issues.

Megan A. Senatori '01, an attorney at DeWitt Ross & Stevens in Madison, has authored an article which has been reprinted in Environmental Ethics and Law, an international publication which is part of the Library of Essays in Environmental Law series. She will also teach a seminar on animal law at the Law School this fall.

Erik R. Guenther '02, an associate at Hostak, Henzl & Bichler in Racine, Wisconsin, has been elected president of the Young Professionals of Racine.

Paul Lehmann '02, a member of Bond, Schoeneck and King in Naples, Florida, has been recalled to active service in the U.S. Coast Guard.

Scott L. Entin '03 has joined Anderson, Bennett & Partners in Chicago, where he will focus on medical malpractice defense litigation.

Margit Sandor Kelley '04 has joined Stafford Rosenbaum in Madison, where she will focus on family law.

Christopher J. Pahl '04 has joined Metzler and Hager in Green Bay, where he will concentrate in business, corporate, tax, and real estate law.