Student business cards are available to law students only. They should be used only for job searches or other professional development purposes. The cards should be used in a professional and appropriate manner, and the privilege to carry them could be revoked if a student is found to be using them for improper purposes. Students are permitted to use University of Wisconsin Law School student business cards only so long as they are registered students of the university. Students may not continue to use the business cards after they graduate or are otherwise no longer enrolled at the university. A student who holds a student business card is not authorized to act as an agent of the University of Wisconsin Law School and may not use the business card to represent himself or herself as an agent of the university for any purpose.
