

Terms in bold are defined in Part One – Definitions

§ 940.19(2) SUBSTANTIAL BATTERY: INTENT TO CAUSE BODILY HARM

[Wis JI-Criminal 1222]

1. The defendant caused substantial bodily harm to (name of victim).
2. The defendant intended to cause bodily harm to [(name of victim)] [another person].

PENALTY: Class I felony.

COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES: A "sexually violent offense" under § 980.01(6)(b) if sexually motivated.

§ 940.19(4) AGGRAVATED BATTERY: INTENT TO CAUSE BODILY HARM

[Wis JI-Criminal 1224]

1. The defendant caused great bodily harm to (name of victim).
2. The defendant intended to cause bodily harm to [(name of victim)] [another person].

PENALTY: Class H felony.

COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES: A "sexually violent offense" under § 980.01(6)(b) if sexually motivated.

§ 940.19(5) AGGRAVATED BATTERY: INTENT TO CAUSE GREAT BODILY HARM

[Wis JI-Criminal 1225]

1. The defendant caused great bodily harm to (name of victim).
2. The defendant intended to cause great bodily harm to [(name of victim)] [another person].

PENALTY: Class H felony.

COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES: A "serious felony" under § 939.62(2m)(a)2m.b. ["Three Strikes"]
A "sexually violent offense" under § 980.01(6)(b) if sexually motivated.

Terms in bold are defined in Part One – Definitions

§ 943.24(1) ISSUE OF A WORTHLESS CHECK: MISDEMEANOR

[Wis JI-Criminal 1468]

1. The defendant issued a check.
2. At the time the check was issued, the defendant intended that it not be paid.

PENALTY: Class A misdemeanor: if the check was for an amount $2,500 or less.

NOTES: "Check" means an unconditional order to pay money. A check is issued when it is signed and delivered to another. Wis JI-Criminal 1468, notes 2 and 3.

This statute does not apply to a check given for a past consideration, that is, a check given for a preexisting obligation or debt. § 943.24(4).

This statute does not apply to a postdated check. § 943.24(4).

§ 943.24(2) ISSUE OF A WORTHLESS CHECK: FELONY

[Wis JI-Criminal 1469A, 1469B]

1. The defendant issued a check.
2. At the time the check was issued, the defendant intended that it not be paid.
3. The check was for the payment of $2,500 or more.

OR

Checks were issued within a 90-day period and totaled $2,500 or more.

PENALTY: Class I felony.

NOTES: "Check" means an unconditional order to pay money. A check is issued when it is signed and delivered to another. Wis JI-Criminal 1468, notes 2 and 3.

This statute does not apply to a check given for a past consideration, that is, a check given for a preexisting obligation or debt. § 943.24(4).

This statute does not apply to a postdated check. § 943.24(4).