

2010 MIDWEST LAW & SOCIETY RETREAT
Hosted by the Institute for Legal Studies
University of Wisconsin – The Pyle Center – 702 Langdon Street – Madison

PROGRAM

10/4/10

Friday, October 8, 2010

3:00-3:25 Registration / Pyle Center third floor reception area at room 325

Please arrive early to pick up your materials, enjoy some refreshments, and connect with friends old and new. As 3:30 draws near, proceed to the Chazen Museum of Art Auditorium for the opening session. (Distance about one block; walking time 5 minutes.)

Directions: Exit the Pyle Center and head to the right, downhill towards the Library Mall. Cross the mall to the clock tower, and continue onto the new red & white paved corridor under construction. Follow the corridor and construction fence to the Chazen entrance. Enter and walk to the right around the staircase where there is an elevator and a set of stairs. Go down one floor and enter the auditorium, L140.

3:30-4:45 OPENING SESSION at the Chazen Museum of Art Auditorium

Welcome: Howie Erlanger

Plenary Presentation: Barbara Young Welke and Cast Members.
Owning Hazard in the Modern American Marketplace

4:45-5:00 Break - Return to the Pyle Center.

5:00-6:30 SESSION 2: RESEARCH METHODS: IF I COULD DO IT OVER AGAIN ...

Chair: Herbert Kritzer

Panel: Kathryn Hendley, Susan Shapiro, Jerry Van Hoy and Barbara Young Welke

6:30-6:45 Break

6:45-8:15 RECEPTION AND BUFFET DINNER – Alumni Lounge, Pyle Center First Floor
(Cash Bar Reception; soft drinks, hors d’oeuvres & dinner provided for all registered guests)

8:15 Announcements: Informal Discussions and Leaders

Mitra Sharafi: “Tips and Tricks for Teachers Old and New”

Sandra Levitsky: “Managing the Dual Career Family”

Herbert Kritzer: “Getting Published”

Stephanie Tai and Anna Maria Marshall: “Nitty Gritty Job Market Strategies”

Mark Suchman and Elizabeth Boyle: “Getting Grants”

Room Assignments after the opening session at the Chazen Museum of Art.

Plenary & A Sessions	325 (Equipped with computer, projection screen, internet access)
B Sessions	309
C Sessions	313 (Equipped with computer, projection screen, internet access)
D Sessions	332

Saturday, October 9, 2010

8:30-9:00 Continental Breakfast and Conversation (reception area at room 325, Pyle Center)

9:00-10:10 SESSION 3: CONCURRENT PRESENTATIONS (70 min.)

3A *On Law Online

Chair: Cecilia Klingele

Panel: Brian Gran/William Henry: Death to Facebook: Regulation of Social Networking Sites
Thaddeus Hoffmeister: The Impact of the Digital Age on Jurors
John Thomson: Legal Consciousness, Copyright, Communication

3B *Human Rights I

Chair: Nancy Buenger

Panel: Sumudu Atapattu: Using Human Rights Framework to Protect Environmental Rights
Bernadette Atuahene: Property and Transitional Justice
Zakiya Luna: Puppies and Rainbows and Human Rights: Perceptions of Human Rights in the Reproductive Justice Movement
Rachael Pierotti: Legal Strategies of the Women's Movement in Tanzania

3C *Protest/Backlash

Chair: Andrew Coan

Panel: John Duerk: A Discussion of the Animal Enterprise Terrorism Act
Jamie Longazel: Pro-Immigrant Activism in an All-American City: Global Problems, Local Limitations
Christopher Schmidt: The Tea Party Constitution

10:10-10:20 Break

*This panel includes one or more graduate students.

10:20-11:30 SESSION 4: CONCURRENT PRESENTATIONS (70 min.)

4A Negotiating the Boundaries of Law & Society

Chair: Mark Suchman

Panel: Sandra Levitsky: Negotiating the Job Market as a Law & Society Scholar
Anna Maria Marshall: Interdisciplinarity and Methodological Pluralism
Jerry Van Hoy: Teaching Law and Society Gateway and Capstone Courses

4B Lawyers and Judges

Chair: Brad Snyder

Panel: Eric Chaffee: *Building Legal Norms from Society's Intuitions About Justice:
The Role of Ethical Intuitionism in Legal Compliance in the Business World*
Corey Yung: *Judged by the Company You Keep:
An Empirical Study of the Ideologies of the Federal Judges*

4C *Governing Diversity in the Americas

Chair: Alexandra Huneus

Panel: Sandra Botero: Legal Pluralism and Political Inclusion in Latin America
Victor Jew: The Limits of Wartime Legal Liberalism
Rashmee Singh: Genealogy of "Ethno-specificity" as a Technique of Governance

4D *Documenting Youth

Chair: Daniel Blocq

Panel: Alicia Harden: *When Bad Parents Become the Worst Parents:
States' Responses to the "Aggravated Circumstances" Exception under ASFA and the Waiver of Reasonable Efforts*
Jeffrey Parness: Reforming Voluntary Paternity Acknowledgment Procedures
Matilda Stubbs: *Documenting Lives: The Role of the Case File in the U.S.
Foster Care System*

11:30-11:40 Break

11:40-12:30 SESSION 5: CONCURRENT PRESENTATIONS (50 min.)

5A *Lunacy and Mental Health

Chair: Karl Shoemaker

Panel: Kathryn Burns-Howard: *From Feme Covert to Ersatz Patriarch:
Civil Status and the Law of Lunacy in the 19th-Century U.S.*
Ursula Castellano: Judges' Use of Treatment Narratives and Motivational Strategies in Mental Health Courts

5B Research Methods

Chair: Anna Maria Marshall

Panel: Mark Edwards: Qualitative Legal Research in a Foreign Land: A Case Study
Peter Oh: What Constitutes Good Empirical Legal Scholarship?

*This panel includes one or more graduate students

5C Criminal Dramas

Chair: Jerry Van Hoy

Panel: Suzanne Borland: CSI v. Law & Order: Creating Diverse Evidentiary Expectations Among Jurors?
Nancy Marder: Judging the Television Judges

5D *Community Corrections and Prison Re-entry

Chair: Elizabeth Hoffmann

Panel: Nicole Kaufman: Political Teaching and Learning in Women's Prisoner Reentry Groups
Cecilia Klingele: Discretionary Decisionmaking by Community Corrections Agents

12:30-1:40 Buffet Lunch provided for all registered guests in the Alumni Lounge.

1:40-1:50 Return to meeting rooms

1:50-3:00 SESSION 6: CONCURRENT PRESENTATIONS (70 min.)

6A Scholarship and Court Citation

Chair: Mark Edwards

Panel: June Liebert/Raizel Liebler: Specialized Citation Analysis in Supreme Court Cases
Lee Petherbridge: Legal Scholarship and the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit: an Empirical Study
Dave Schwartz: Citation to Legal Scholarship by the Federal Courts of Appeals: an Empirical Study

6B *Embodying the Workplace

Chair: Sandra Levitsky

Panel: Elizabeth Hoffmann: Moms and Managers
Nate Holdren: "The Compensation Law Put Us Out Of Work": Workmen's Compensation, Commodification, and Disability
Jill Weinberg: Homonormalization of the Workplace: Law, Organizations and the Construction of Identity

6C The Rule of Law: Colonial/Postcolonial Contexts

Chair:

Panel: Nancy Buenger: Equity as Anti-Law
Miranda Johnson: The New, Ancient Past: Historicizing the Rule of Law in Anglophone Settler States
Mitra Sharafi: Separating the Rule of Law from Colonialism

3:00-3:10 Break

*This panel includes one or more graduate students.

3:10-4:20 SESSION 7: CONCURRENT PRESENTATIONS (70 min.)

7A *Mobilizing Law in Non-democratic Regimes: Case of Russia

Chair: Kathryn Hendley

Panel: Jordan Gans-Morse: Out of Chaos? Business Conflicts and Demand for Legal Institutions in Russia

Lauren McCarthy: Mobilizing Old Laws to Prosecute New Crimes: The Case of Human Trafficking in Russia

Alexei Trochev: Seeking Redress from Wrongful Prosecution in Putin's Russia

7B Human Rights II

Chair: Heinz Klug

Panel: Jason Cross: Metrics and Democratization

Catherine Grosso: State Movements to Abolish the Death Penalty and Their Impact on International Norms

Brian Ray: Proceduralisation's Triumph and Engagement's Promise in Socioeconomic Rights Litigation

7C *Sexuality

Chair: Alan Rubel

Panel: Trevor Hoppe: HIV-Nondisclosure Laws as State-Sanctioned Heteronormativity

Jeff Kosbie: Courts as a Discursive Forum: Judicial Narratives of Sexuality Over Time

Jamie Small: The Legality of Sexuality: Male Rape and the Construction of Heteronormativity

4:20-4:30 Break

4:30-5:00 SESSION 8: ENDNOTE SPEAKER: Mark Suchman

Closing Comments: Howie Erlanger

*This panel includes one or more graduate students