UW Law School Research Centers

About the Institute for Legal Studies (ILS): The Institute for Legal Studies acts as a catalyst and facilitator for scholarly work on socio-legal topics carried out by law faculty and their collaborators. The Institute sponsors faculty workshops on works-in-progress, professional development, and research methods, as well as guest lectures, symposia and conferences, including the Law & Society speaker series and the Junior faculty exchange. The Institute hosts two biennial signature events: the Hurst Summer Institute in Legal History and the Midwest Law and Society Retreat. It also provides support to the events sponsored by the Dean's Office, including the Ideas & Innovations speaker series.

About the Global Legal Studies Center (GLS): The Global Legal Studies Center is a joint program of the University of Wisconsin Law School and the International Division. Through this program, the Law School and the International Division work together to promote the understanding of international, transnational, and comparative legal systems, processes and regimes and disseminate this knowledge to students and constituencies on and off campus. The Center's goal is to support research in international legal studies, organize workshops and conferences, expand connections with scholars and institutions in the U.S. and overseas, deepen links with other international programs on campus, and share expertise. GLS also administers the campus-wide Human Rights Program and the Speaker Series on Global & Comparative Law.

About the East Asian Legal Studies Center (EALSC): The East Asian Legal Studies Center was founded in 1990. It was established to formalize and increase the Law School's academic interaction with universities, government ministries, and the private sector in East and Southeast Asia. In the past decades, the EALSC has played a major role in the University of Wisconsin Law School's activities in East Asia. It has established extensive partnerships with academic institutions in the region and initiated or co-sponsored a variety of conferences and outreach programs.
