AEP Study Group Program – Weekly Discussion Sessions

Introduction to Substantive Criminal Law

10-weekly discussions

Weekday	Time	Dates
Fridays	12:00pm	September 23 rd – December 2 nd

Kindly note the following:

- These are study groups that give out-of-classroom opportunities for interested students to further clarify topics covered during class times.
- You are expected to review class notes and get questions ready before going to weekly discussion session.
- Study groups are led by 2Ls who took the class in their first year of law school. They work with your faculty.
- *Information about your assigned study group section, discussion group leaders, and classroom location will be emailed to you before your first discussion session on September 23. Expect weekly reminders.
