

1 - 7 DAYS

1. Receiving Request and Contact with Victim

The Victim-Offender Dialogue is victim-initiated. Once a request is received by our office, RJP will contact the requester to discuss the process.

2 - 3 WEEKS

2. Assessment and Contact with Offender

When a request is opened, RJP contacts the offender to assess their appropriateness for the process and willingness to participate.

1 WEEK

3. Assessment and Contact with Victim

The victim will be contacted to discuss the assessment and next steps, including scheduling an initial prep meeting with victim.

4 - 12 MONTHS

4. Preparation for Dialogue

RJP communicates with both parties separately until each are sufficiently prepared for dialogue. Depending on the nature of the request, this may take significant time.

CASE
DEPENDENT

5. Victim-Offender Dialogue and Follow Up

After the dialogue, RJP will follow-up with both parties to determine whether any additional steps are necessary.